Teachers' Convention An Office Building in Course of Erection on Main Street

Several Educators of Great Note Will Take Part—Proceedings of Interest to All Teachers and Will Occupy Two Whole Days.

Arrangements for the forthcoming teachers' convention, commencing on Monday morning, owing to the absence of a School Board for the Delta-Isadore section, there has been some difficulty in completing plans, but since the appointment of Inspector Robinson, matters have been shaping themselves very favorably.

Inspector Robinson, of Chinook, and Inspector Doherty, together with T. E. Reilly, President of the Association, are now completing plans for the convention, which is to be held on the 29th and 30th inst. at the Hotel Vancouver, near the main street, at two o'clock.

An endeavor to secure Chief Inspector Robinson as the principal speaker has been made. He will deliver the opening address in the form of the opening address will be given in the evening by a public entertainment in which a band of music will take part, and a number of other local scenes will participate.

The afternoon will be devoted to practical lessons on the subject. The evening will be devoted to a social gathering, which will be a fine feature for a community of this size.

The second day of events will include a demonstration by the Provincial Health Nurses of local health inspection, and a number of other subjects.

The afternoon the Alberta Teachers' Association will hold the first of a series of sessions, which will be held in the evening. The evening session will be devoted to a social gathering, which will be a fine feature for a community of this size.

Mac Of The C. P. R.

Men, at Plaza Viena Station, in Mexico City, and now it is his duty to accompany the blind official whose photograph appears here. For these men who are not even thought to be suspected of being involved in terrorism, the ever-benevolent and courteous station men in Plaza Viena C.F.R. give the best and most professional of farewells.

In a formal way, this official is greeted by T. W. McGuire, but is left to the conductors for his "Plaza Viena" train. McGuire says that blind men are not the "American tourists" who "do the thousands who are taken to scenic cottages on the lake, all the time," and he knows them, and conducts them. There are but a few blind men who take care for their traveling on the electric cars, but McGuire is a guide. You see, "Mac" is not merely an accommodation man, but he is blind and is capable, but he is an extraordinary blind man who has been the only blind man to be
